Activity: MongoDB - Connecting to a Node.js application

In your application create a database connection file to store the db connection object, and expose methods to initialise and retrieve the connection.

Initialise the connection in app.js when the application loads.

Get the database connection from inside each of the API controllers.

This is an activity from The complete JavaScript developer: MEAN stack zero-to-hero

Full Stack Training Ltd
www.fullstacktraining.com
@TrainingStack